WELCOME

Thank you for joining us on this special two-concert day! Today, we'll help you escape the cold, dark winter and journey into the cold, dark, and awe-inspiring wonder of space.

From spaceship battles to alien worlds, the London Video Game Orchestra will take you on a journey from our galaxy to the next.

Thank you for being part of this special day. Sit back, grab your controller (or in this case, your seat), and let's press PLAY.

CONDUCTOR JOE DAVIES

Recently praised for his 'musical brilliance' (Seen and Heard International), Joe Davies is a Conductor working around the UK. He is Assistant Conductor of the English Symphony Orchestra, Musical Director of the UK Proms in the Park Orchestra, Canterbury Symphony Orchestra, Oxford Millennium Orchestra, Leamington Sinfonia, Solway Sinfonia, Cumbria Youth Orchestra, Coventry & Warwickshire Youth Orchestra, and the London Video Game Orchestra, and Artistic Director of the Cumbria Opera Group. Recent and future engagements include the Royal Northern Sinfonia, Orchestra of the Swan, National Schools' Symphony Orchestra, and Sinfonia Smith Square, while previous MD positions include Worcester Philharmonic Orchestra, Midland Concert Orchestra, and Contemporary Music East Midlands (CoMA).

Joe's Opera credits include Don Giovanni, Così fan tutte, Acis and Galatea, Trouble in Tahiti, Dido and Aeneas, and Venus and Adonis with the Cumbria Opera Group, alongside Candide at the Oxford Playhouse and Mansfield Park with Cardiff Opera. Joe was Artistic Director of the Cumbria Opera Festivals 2021 and 2023, involving artists such as Roderick Williams OBE and Joan Rodgers CBE. Joe has conducted premieres of works by Howard Skempton, Alex Ho, and Martin Bussey, while concerto collaborations include Jess Gillam, Laura van der Heijden, Emma Johnson, Xhosa Cole, Kirill Troussov, Benedict Kloeckner, Clare Hammond, and Harry Baker. Joe graduated with a First Class Degree in Music from St Peter's College, Oxford, and studied Orchestral Conducting at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire, graduating with Distinction, where he studied under Michael Seal. Other training includes the Serena Fenwick Programme with British Youth Opera.

THANK YOU

A huge thank you to St Augustine's, our wonderful arrangers, performers, volunteers and ushers, librarian Louis James and the LVGO committee – Gemma Kappala-Ramsamy, Griffin Jenkins, Louis Lyle, and Louis James - without all of whom this concert would not be possible.

Thank you to Jessica Bondy (Accent Digital Designs) for our poster design and Griffin Jenkins for our programme.

Extra thanks to all our players, new and old, who have helped this orchestra grow.

And an extra special thank you to YOU!

Without your support, this concert would not be possible. If you're interested in our future projects, play days, or joining the orchestra, check out our website:
